A social network for anyone who has lived overseas

FAUSA: FAWCO Alumnae USA

Returning from living abroad? You have a friend in FAUSA!

FAUSA was established in 2000 by a group of former expats, both as a social network and to maintain their connection to FAWCO, the Federation of American Women's Clubs Overseas.

FAUSA is now over 200 strong and more active than ever.

Here are some of the opportunities that are available when you join FAUSA

An annual get-together, which happens every fall in some gorgeous spot in America. Previous FAUSA gatherings have been in Charleston, Durango, Longboat Key, New York City, San Antonio, Cape Cod and Napa.

The chance to stay connected to FAWCO and participate in all that FAWCO has to offer, including:

- The annual global FAWCO conference
- Continuing eligibility for the education awards
- Participation in The FAWCO Foundation's philanthropic endeavors and the Target Program

- Access to UN networks and information
- Involvement in one of FAWCO's many task forces
- Join the group in Washington that represents American interests abroad: voting, tax and banking, citizenship, etc.

Members get the chance to network with other 'repats' at regular regional get-togethers. These fun-filled events take place in Boston, Cincinnati, Detroit, and Washington DC.....just to name a few.

Not only does FAUSA support members as they return to the US, but it also offers support for children. There is a FAUSA committee dedicated to supporting our 'third culture kids' as they transition back into US culture.

Join the FAUSA Skype Book Group online.

Take advantage of the 'Member Marketplace' to sell, rent or provide services to other FAUSA members.

And be sure to get involved in FAUSA's own charitable work by contributing to our philanthropic endeavors.
